GLADIOLA

A WONDERFUL NEW GLADIOLUS

Dorothy McKibbin—I believe this will become what florists have long been looking for—a reliable, first class, early ruffled pink forcing variety. It is of good height, nice size blossoms and plenty open at a time. Extraordinarily early. A rapid propagator and No. 1 variety for florists or garden planting. It was originated by A. E. Kunderd, Goshen, Ind. I purchased the entire stock several years ago. After testing it both as a forcing and garden variety it has proven to be first class in every respect. I am now offering it for sale for the first time.
